Harry was the son of John B. Krudop and Charlotte Settlemeyer. His death was due to drowning at age 69.

Gottlieb H. Krudop and Ollie V. Manet, daughter of Edward Manet and Adeline Sarsen, were married in Dec. 1894, in Allen County, IN. Record shows that it was the first marriage for each of them.

"Harry Krudop has been granted a divorce from Ollie Krudop. He was given the custody of the children."

Membership's Report

Neighborhood Promotion

We live here!

Our Goals

- Identify the West Central boundaries
 - Unite disparate areas
 - Build engagement
- Amplify the brand & historic designation
 - Strengthen historic preservation
- Remind “visitors” this is a neighborhood
 - People live here
 - Speed & noise matter
 - Safety matters
- Pursue membership priorities
 - Use our financial resources

Jersey Barrier Artwork

- 19 very functional & necessary barriers on the western gateway of West Central
- While functional, not attractive!
- Want to cover them with public art
- Build on investment in the Amaryllis Sculpture
- “Calm” traffic as it enters our neighborhood
- Further beautify that gateway

Jersey Barrier Process

- WCNA will issue a formal Request for Proposal (RFP) only to seasoned public art artists
- Those who provide a formal response with all the details would be nominally compensated for that work (as is customary)
- Winner to be chosen by the WCNA board
- Looking for paint barriers in 2026, completion by fall

Our Ask

- No decision today, will present again at July meeting for a vote
- Looking for approval of a $10,000 total budget
 - Artwork
 - Paint
 - RFP payments
